

Where are you facing this crime against humanity?

On September 1st, 2015, gendarmes entered the university of Antananarivo to capture the student Jean-Pierre, in a bestial way. Below photos extracted from the video without appeal.

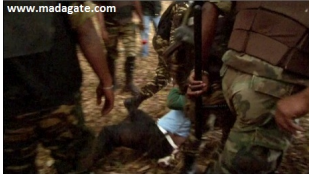

Fatma Samoura (Reprentative of the UNDP), Robert T. Yamate (U.S. Ambassador), associations for the respect for human rights: where are you? Your silence is more than accomplice in the face of these dictatorial drift been imperative by a diet overtaken by events and which do not master anymore those sensible to apply the law in the strict respect for human rights.

Madagascar. Gendarmes torturing student. Where are the Human rights watchers?

Mercredi, 02 Septembre 2015 08:28 - Mis à jour Mercredi, 02 Septembre 2015 09:13

To accuse a young student stemming from Malagasy campaigns, to want to stir up a coup d'état, is an excuse of cowards, incompetent. When General Florens Rakotomahanina speaks about arrest according to the rule book and in the respect for the law, it is the image of the gendarmes of the whole world that is tarnished.

Madagascar. Gendarmes torturing student. Where are the Human rights watchers?

Mercredi, 02 Septembre 2015 08:28 - Mis à jour Mercredi, 02 Septembre 2015 09:13

the government for each of these people which offends the

the original intention of the constitution of Madagascar and the Madagascar. Gendarmes torturing student. Where are the Human rights watchers?

Mercredi, 02 Septembre 2015 08:28 - Mis à jour Mercredi, 02 Septembre 2015 09:13

Jean-Louis Baudry, jean-louis.baudry@madagate.com, 02 Septembre 2015. be directly sent to the White House in