The 2013 MIECF was officially opened yesterday at the Venetian Macao Resort-Hotel, and the Chief Executive Fernando Chui vowed to make use of the green opportunity to achieve sustainable growth and economic diversification. Chui and other officials from Macau, Hong Kong and the mainland, as well as representatives from relevant industries, and Miguel Albuquerque attended the opening ceremony that kicked off the three-day event on its sixth anniversary. Speaking during the opening speech, Chui said in recent years governments from all over the world have deployed substantial resources to environmental protection with a view to reducing the impact of the climate change and creating a high quality living environment. "The Macao SAR Government will continue to implement different environmental policies and relevant works according to the first Environmental Protection Planning of Macao III 2020." He said promoting the environmental protection industry is not just about creating a clean and green living environment. "It also serves as an important factor for achieving the goals of appropriate diversification of local economy, and nurturing the growth of new industries."

Entre Antananarivo et Macao, il y a +5 heures de décalage horaire. Au moment où cet article est rédigé, si c'est le début d'après-midi dans la Capitale malgache, la nuit est déjà tombée à Macao.
